

Cab Calloway School of the Arts

Mrs. Rae

Summer reading for incoming Freshmen English 9: Read at least ONE of the books listed below by the first day of school. You will need to know the following things about your book when you arrive at school.

1. Author (correctly spelled)
2. Year of publication
3. Title of book (correctly spelled)
4. Plot sequence (short summary of plot written in your own words)
5. Characters-
 - a. Protagonist
 - b. Antagonist
6. Major message or themes
7. Setting
8. Point of view the author uses to write the story
9. Type(s) of conflict author uses in the novel

You should write out all nine of these items and bring them to class the first day.

The titles to consider are:

Enders Game by Orson Scott Card (science fiction)

Golden Compass by Phillip Pullman (classic fantasy)

Everything, Everything by Nicola Yoon (contemporary fiction)

Emma by Jane Austen (classic novel)

Night by Elie Wiesel (memoir)